THE HISTORY OF Pericles, Prince of Tyre.

Enter Gower.

TO sing a song that old was sung,
From ashes ancient Gower is come,
Assuming mans infirmities,
To glad your eare, and please your eyes;
It hath beene sung at Festivals,
On ember eves, and holi-dayes
And Lords and Ladies in their lives,
Have read it for restoratives:
The purchase is to make men glorious,
Et bonum quo antiquius eo melius:
If you, borne in these latter times,
When wits more ripe, accept my Rimes;
And that to heare an old man sing,
May to your wishes pleasure bring:
I life would wish, and that I might
Waste it for you like Taper-light.
This Antioch, then, Antiochus the great,
Built up this Citie for his chiefest seate;
The fairest in all Syria.
I tell you what mine Authors say:
This King unto him tooke a Peere,
Who died, and left a female heire,
So buxsome, blithe, and full of face,
